The newspaper mail due here yesterday morning, failed, and consequently, we are deprived of any late and important news.

CANDIDATES! LOOK HERE!!

Will those gentlemen who have been announced in our paper as candidates for office at the late August election, leave the kindness to "call at the Captivity's office," and settle up their little dues? We hope that none will be backward in this matter. Come, gentlemen, walk up, pay what you owe, take the printer's receipt, and then you can hold up your head in society like a Giraffe.

Rockwell & Co's. Circus.

Our readers will find in our columns to-day, the advertisement of this celebrated company. They exhibit here on Saturday next, the 30th inst. Those who have any doubts to spare on that day, will be at no loss to know where to get rid of them. See advertisement for the hours of performance.

Something New!—A Printer Robbed!

The last St. Louis papers announce the robbery of a printer connected with the Organ office in that city, of the sum of fifty-five dollars. A printer with fifty-five dollars in his possession at one time!—why, the thing is hardly credible, and we very much dislike to believe it. Show us a real printer with that much of "the ready" on hand at one time, and you can take our old boots. We'd give something handsome to get a sight of him—we would.

Western Journal.

We have received the September No. of this valuable Journal. From a hasty glance at its contents, we are satisfied that it is not behind its predecessors in point of interest. Its table of contents exhibits the following varieties: Education; Mental Culture, Public Economy for the U. States, Internal Improvement in South-west Missouri, The Rise, Progress and Influence of the Fine Arts, and Hemp. Published by Tarver & Risk, St. Louis, $3 00 per annum.

Extraordinary Increase.

The Lexington Appeal of the 12th inst. contains the following gratifying intelligence:

A Quarterly Meeting of the Methodist Church has been protracted in this city for several days. Rev. J. R. Bennett, Presiding Elder, present. We understood this gentleman, while alluding, in a discourse on Sabbath morning, to some statistical facts in relation to the condition of the Church in Missouri, to state that within the last six weeks, seven hundred persons had united with the Church, and all embraced in his diocese.

Removal.

The Boon's Lick Times, which has heretofore been published at Fayette, Howard county, is to be removed to Glasgow, on the Missouri river, and takes the name of the "Glasgow Weekly Times." Upon the removal of the Times to that point, Glasgow will send forth two weeklies—the Glasgow News having already been in "successful operation" more than five years. Success to them both!

Congressional Election.—First District.

Howlin, Dem., received 10,202 votes; Cook, Whig, 6,730—Democratic majority 3,472.

2nd Dist.—Bay, D., received 8,304; Porter, W., 6,968—democratic majority 1,326.

3d Dist.—Green, D., received 9,754; Wilson, W., 7,417—democratic majority 2,337.

4th Dist.—Hall, D., received 10,091; Samuel, W., 3,944—democratic majority 6,147.

5th Dist.—Phelps, D., received 11,062; Winston, W., 5,848—democratic majority 5,214.

Trouble Ahead!

The last No. of the Boon's Lick Times contains the following:

How is the difficulty to be arranged?—There seems to be some misunderstanding between the authorities of Texas and the powers at Washington:

FOR NEW MEXICO.

Judge Beard and family of Texas, passed up the river last Saturday, en route for New Mexico. He goes out by authority of the Governor of Texas, as Judge of New Mexico, by which it would seem that Texas is going to contest her right to all that country. The Territory is under the jurisdiction of the General Government, held as part of the territory acquired from Mexico by conquest and treaty. Texas claims it as part of her original annexed territory. Uncle Sam and his young child for it. We think the old gentleman has paid pretty dearly for the young scamp already, and this proceeding smacks strongly of ingratitude. The "beggar is on horseback!"

Father Mathew has forwarded a

Cork newspaper to the editors of the Albany Evening Journal, containing the following paragraph, with marks drawing attention to it:

"Father Mathew will not go to America this month, as his health, we regret to say, is not fully re-established. We were informed by a relation of the reverend gentleman, that in all probability he will not proceed to America this year."

From Mexico.

We learn from the Evening Mercury, that the St. Louis arrived at New Orleans on the 3d, bringing dates from the city of Mexico to the 15th ult., and from Vera Cruz to the 31st. The Mexican government has sent a large body of troops to Tampico to prevent the much talked of annexation of some of the northern States to this country. The Monitor speaks of preparations being in an advanced state, and notices the return of most of the Louisiana volunteers, who are to join in the movement.—Organ.

Don Inacio Valdivielso has been appointed Minister to Rome.

The French National Guard of Mexico celebrated, on the 15th ult., their final organization.

The two foreigners, named Capdavielle, and Mafeta, were arrested in the city of Mexico for endeavoring to excite a movement for the overthrow of the government. They tried to seduce the American police.

The National Guard is organizing at Monterey. The revolt at Mazatlan is at an end.

The St. Patrick company lives as vagabonds usually do—stealing when they can, and begging when they cannot steal. The regiment made up of our deserters and the Mexicans, are about being re-organized, as they cannot get well together in consequence of the difference in language.

Don Pedro Velez, Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature is dead.

A minister to the United States has been appointed, but we have not yet learned his name.

A military expedition for Oregon is to proceed with all possible despatch, from Fort Leavenworth, to escort the lately appointed Governor, Gen. Lane. Western papers consider it an impossibility to make the trip at this season, as the grass on the prairies will have been dried up and burned even before they can progress far beyond Fort Leavenworth. The command, it is said, is to go out with mules, and without any other baggage train, so that the trip may be made as speedily as possible.—N. Y. Journal.

A Flash in the Pan.

Some of the officials of the British government, in searching for arms and sympathizers, seized 600 barrels of powder on the Irish coast. It turns out that the powder was a perfectly loyal shipment, it being consigned to one of the most respectable firms in Dublin, for blasting purposes, and not revolution. The manufacturers who shipped it from Frith, have proceeded against the Custom House authorities for the detention of the vessel, and orders for the release of the powder have been received at Plymouth.—The powder was at first supposed to come from the United States.

The New York Sub-Treasury contained on the 1st inst., $1,938,000 exclusive of $230,000 in Mexican coin, which was received from the army in Mexico, and has not as yet been passed to the credit of any department.—Union.

A LADY IN A FIX.

A few days since, says the New York Herald, a lady of very genteel appearance, and as afterwards discovered, belonging to a very respectable family, made a most daring attempt to rob a shoe store on Broadway, while the gentleman keeping the store was waiting on his sister.—They entered the store, and the younger of the two asked to be shown some of the best gaiter boots. The boots were taken from the boxes, and they expressed their admiration of them, but the price was rather high, and they wished to see some of less price. The request was immediately complied with, and those of less price placed upon the counter; but while the shopkeeper's back was turned for a moment, to take down the box containing them, the elder lady most expertly slipped a pair of the best under her visite, without having been seen. After examining the boots for some time, the suspicions of the gentleman were aroused by the earnest gaze of the dishonest lady, who seemed as if she thought she had been discovered. They were about leaving the store without purchasing, when he discovered what he supposed to be the form of the sole of a shoe, and immediately walking around the counter, placed his hands upon the boots, and asked her what she had there. In an instant, as if paralyzed, she stood trembling before him, and the boots fell upon the floor. He then told her she would have to buy them, or he should most certainly subject her to more unpleasantness than she had already fallen into. She had no money with her, neither had her sister, but said she would go home and get it. This was refused her; but she was told that her sister could go, and she remain until her return with the money; and not until that was done, was she allowed to depart. The lady is a young widow, and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of respectable acquaintances. If she has been guilty of such small acts before, that discovery will probably prove of benefit to her; and the next time she wants a pair of boots, she will be prepared to purchase them, and not attempt to steal them.

FROM SIAM.

Dreadful—495,000 Human Beings Massacred.

According to report from Singapore, an insurrection has broken out at Siam by the Chinese population, which constitutes the majority of residents in the capital, Bangkok; of the 640,000 inhabitants, 500,000 are Chinese. It was not subdued until after two bloody engagements. After gaining the victory, the royal troops commenced a general massacre of the Chinese, of whom only 5,000 have escaped.

A new way to collect Bad Debts.

An undertaker in New York, being unable to collect some old debts, after calling and sending in vain, took out his hearse and drove up to the dwelling of a creditor. Much surprise was expressed by the family, who, on hearing that the hearse would remain until the money was paid, speedily handed over the money. He repeated the operation with all his creditors, and before night the debts were all paid.

Immigration of Jews.

We learn from the Jewish Chronicle that such is the feeling of insecurity and alarm felt by that forsighted people, the Jews of Europe, in these times of "liberty, equality and fraternity," that a number of respectable families have been banished into the Church of Rome to escape persecution, and "a thousand Jews in Perth have resolved to depart for America, the rich undertaking to support the poor.

College in Africa.

A citizen of Mississippi has left $100,000 for the establishment of a college in Liberia, Africa.

England seems to be in a very unsettled condition.

The movements of the Chartists show peep seated hostility to the government, together with a consciousness of popular rights which threaten no little disturbance for a long time to come.—In Scotland there is some agitation, whilst no one can predict what will happen in Ireland.

The "Pearl" Case.

The court at Washington has refused to grant a new trial in the case of Drayton. He has been sentenced to ten years imprisonment on each of two indictments.

Sears has been found guilty, and has to pay a fine of $200 on each of the 71 cases; over $14,000. Both these persons are now in jail.

Crops of cotton are said to be short in Alabama.

Whilst the N. Orleans Crescent says: The crops of cotton, corn and sugar, are said to be superior to that of any preceding year in Texas.

Beautiful Reminiscence of the First Congress in Philadelphia.

From the pen of the venerable John Adams.

When the Congress met, Mr. Cushing made a motion that it should be opened with prayer.

It was opposed by Mr. Jay, of New York, and Mr. Rutledge, of South Carolina, because we were so divided in religious sentiments, some Episcopalians, some Quakers, some Anabaptists, some Presbyterians, and some Congregationalists, that we could not join in the same act of worship. Mr. Samuel Adams arose and said, "that he was no bigot, and could hear a prayer from any gentleman of piety and virtue who was at the same time a friend to his country. He was a stranger in Philadelphia, but he had heard that Mr. Duche, (Dushay they pronounced it) deserved that character, and therefore he moved that Mr. Duche, an Episcopal clergyman, might be desired to read prayer to Congress to-morrow morning." The motion was seconded, and passed in the affirmative. Mr. Randolph, our President, waited on Mr. D., and received for answer, that if his health would permit, he certainly would. Accordingly, the next morning he appeared with his clerk, and his pontificals, and read several prayers in the established form, and then read the psalter for the seventh day of September, which was the 35th Psalm. You must remember this was the next morning after we had heard the rumor of the horrible cannonade of Boston. "It seemed as if Heaven had ordained that Psalm to be read on that morning."

After this, Mr. Duche, unexpectedly to everybody, struck out into extemporary prayer, which filled the bosom of every man present. I must confess I never heard a better prayer, or one so well pronounced. Episcopalians as he is, Dr. Cooper himself never prayed with such fervor, such ardor, such correctness and pathos, and in language so elegant and sublime for America, for Congress, for the province of Massachusetts Bay, especially the town of Boston. It had excellent effect upon everybody here. If there is any faith in the sortes Virgilianae, or Homericae, or especially the sortes Biblicae, it would have been thought providential."

Here was a scene worthy of a painter's art. It was in Carpenter's Hall, in Philadelphia, a building which still survives, that the devoted individuals met to whom this service was read.

Washington was kneeling there, and Henry and Randolph, and Rutledge, and Lee, and Jay, and by their side there stood, bowed in reverence, the Puritan patriots of New England, who at that moment had reason to believe that an armed soldiery was wasting their humble households. It was believed that Boston had been bombarded and destroyed. They prayed fervently for "America, for the Congress, for the province Massachusetts Bay, & especially for the town of Boston," and who can realize the emotions with which they turned imploringly to Heaven for Divine interposition and aid?—"It was enough," says Mr. Adams, "to melt a heart of stone. I saw the tears gush into the eyes of the old, grave, pacific Quakers of Philadelphia."

The term "Blue Stocking," so generally applied to literary ladies, was first conferred on a society in London, which was called the Blue Stocking Club, in which females were admitted. It originated with a Mr. Benjamin Stillingfleet, one of its acting members, who always wore blue stockings.

'THERE'S A GOOD TIME COMING.'

Who, that keeps pace with the rapid movements, discoveries, and advancement of this age, in the natural sciences, in arts, in governments, and moral and intellectual reforms, but what can see, without prophetic vision, that "a good time is coming," with the rapidity of the lightning's flash, and the certainty of eternal truth. Among the good things that have already come, and are diffusing their good effects far and wide, over this Hesperian "land of promise," are the much and truly celebrated Indian Queen Vegetable Sugar-Coated pills of Dr. Bragg. They are working as great a reform in the practice of Medicine as Republicanism is in the Governments of Europe. No family that knows their many virtues by experience, will be without them. In the cure of Bilious diseases they are unrivalled in the annals of medicine.

For sale by Brown & Dunn, Warsaw. See Dr. Bragg's advertisement in another column.

WHY DO PHYSICIANS prescribe

"Smith's Tonic Syrup, or Vegetable Fibrin," for Chills and Fever? It is, first—because they know it is compounded from the most valuable substances found in the vegetable Kingdom; second—they are aware the process of extracting those substances is done with the strictest regard to their chemical and therapeutical properties; third—because the effect produced by the administration of this medicine is of that certain but harmless character which no other remedy is capable of producing, in restoring the patient to sound and permanent health.

The genuine may be had from the agent, BROWN & DUNN.

For the permanent and radical cure of scald head, scrofula, salt rheum, fever, scurvy, tetter and ring-worm, all cutaneous eruptions, &c., so troublesome to some persons.

Griffey's Celebrated Ointment is a positive specific. The high reputation which this remedy has acquired for the cure of the above named diseases, warrants the proprietor in recommending it to that portion of the afflicted who have not witnessed the curative properties combined in this valuable ointment, a thorough and immediate trial. It is sold by BROWN & DUNN, Warsaw.

ROCKWELL & Co's. CIRCUS.

THE proprietors of this immense and talented Equestrian Establishment, take great pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Warsaw and the adjacent vicinity, the approaching performances of the unrivalled Troupe.

They feel a peculiar satisfaction in referring to the strength as well as the brilliant talent and unapproachable skill and grace which they have been enabled, in course of time, and by extra labor and expense, to concentrate in one establishment. They feel a great pride in calling particular attention to the name of Hiram W. Franklin, whose representation you see in the large Pictorial bill in his wonderful act of throwing 76 Somersets, a number never equalled by any performer in the World; together with his terrific Double Somersets, through ballistics, banners, horses, &c., &c. Also his daring one, two and four horse riding, with his astonishing Cord Volant Performances, which truly make him the Wonder of the Age.

Artists without number and certainly without regard to expense, have been employed during the past winter in manufacturing new Costumes, Housings, Trappings, Decorations and other Paraphernalia to correspond with their magnificent Pageantries, Tournaments, Cavalcades and Processions, which this company gives every representation, and which have created such a tremendous sensation everywhere upon their route, and always attended with so great eclat, that hundreds who never visited a Circus before, are now flocking to witness the patrons of this Greatest of Circuses.

In addition to the above talented troupe there is attached to this Company, five female Equestrians, viz: Mrs. Nunn, Mrs. Schindler, Mrs. A. Rockwell, Mrs. Lake and Mrs. Woods.

There is also attached to this company, the Queen City Brass Band, who will entertain the audience by discoursing most eloquent music.

Henry Rockwell & Co., Proprietors, S. O. Stokes, Manager, Thomas Nunn, Equestrian Director, A. W. Pell, Treasurer, William Lake, Clown.

Will exhibit in Warsaw, on Saturday, September 20th, 1848. For one day only. Doors open at half past one o'clock, performance to commence at 2 o'clock, P. M. and 1-2 past 7 o'clock in the evening.

Admission, Boxes, 50 cents. City, 25 cents.

Children under 12 years half price, but positively no half price to the pit.

The performance will commence with the magnificent spectacle, entitled the Halt of the Bedouins, or the Arab's Bivouac.

Comic Song by Mr. Lake. Grand Trampoline Leaps by Mr. Hiram W. Franklin.

Vaulting by the Company, led by H. W. Franklin, who has performed the most incredible feat of throwing 76 consecutive Somersets. After which the pride pet of the Arena, Master W. Grady, will perform his beautiful act on two ponies, after which will be enacted an astonishing act of Horsemanship and Gymnastic Evolutions on two horses, entitled the Rival Romans, or Olympian Breviaries. By Messrs B. Runkells and H. W. Franklin.

Mrs. Thomas Nunn will appear in a splendid act on a single horse as Hebe or the Morning Sprite.

Mr. Lake will introduce his trained dogs, Massanello or the Fish-man of Naples, by Mr. B. Runkells.

Mr. H. W. Franklin, the greatest Slack Rope performer in the world, will perform some of those imimitable feats on the rope, which have obtained for him the appellation of the Sprite of the Air.

Two horse Alencande, by Mrs. Thomas Nunn and B. Runkells.

Mr. H. W. Franklin, and his pupil, the beautiful and talented Master W. Grady, will next appear in their celebrated Antipodean Gymnastics and Muscular Evolutions. The matchless symmetry of their Apollo like and Classic forms, (which a painter or sculptor might envy) the apparent recklessness of their difficult performances and the easy, skill, grace and celerity with which they are executed, thrill the spectator with astonishment while at the same time he is filled with awe and delight.

Indian Warrior, by Mr. John Schindler. Mr. S. far surpasses any rider of the present age, in his life like delineations of the passions and habits of the wild son of the west.

Mrs. Lake will appear on the slack wire and introduce and perform many difficult feats in which she stands without a rival.

Master W. Grady will next be introduced and ride his brilliant Single Horse act. This precocious and juvenile Equestrian has already by his beauty, talent, grace and skill obtained the flattering sobriquet of the Young Ducrow of America.

Among the stud of highly trained Horses, will be particularly noticed the feats of the celebrated fighting ponies. The whole to conclude with a laughable afterpiece.

WM. C. PRESTON, Agent.
